

Free Trade Disguise

Last week, Tucker Carlson on FOX exposed something we have been saying for decades: the scheme to merge North America into one country.

A North American Union scheme is being implemented through the so-called free trade treaties, such as the USMCA (United States-Mexico-Canada-Agreement).

Why would free trade be any concern? Isn't trade essential for any successful country? There's more to it than most people know about...including many conservatives. Find out more on this week's Activate America.

You can help stop globalist trade deals by taking action!
