

Store Closings Skyrocket

As morality deteriorates in America, so does the lifespan of many retail stores. Major cities are experiencing the consequences of de-funding the police. Statistics now show an increase in open looting, arson, and shootings. The crime spikes have caused stores around the country to close down. What's the reason behind this store-closing frenzy? Tune in to this week's episode of Activate America to find out.