

The John Birch Society

Author: CSpoehr

Date: August 9, 2021

A large graphic featuring diagonal stripes in various shades of gray and white. Centered on this background is the text 'The John Birch Society' in a serif font, followed by a thin, curved golden line, and then 'Why I'm a Member' in a larger, bold serif font.

The John Birch Society Why I'm a Member

About The John Birch Society

The John Birch Society members are concerned Americans from many races, religious beliefs, and national origins. Since JBS was founded on December 9, 1958, its members have been men and women of good character, humane conscience, and religious ideals who have worked together to safeguard the Constitution.

The John Birch Society is principled, coordinated, and effective activism. Members are locally organized into small chapters and follow a National Agenda. By working as one, members create great pressure and influence originates locally and is felt nationally.

Take Action:

Join The John Birch Society