Think our federal government is too big? Tired of the corruption, the abuses of power, and the out-of-control spending?

One document can fix all of it! In fact, for the first 125+ years, it served as a guiding beacon that made America the envy of the world.

That document is the Constitution. How can we use it to rein in big government and drain the swamp? Watch the 60-minute "Rein in Big Government with Article VI, Not V" here:
